Dog On It, by Spencer Quinn (8/31)

Meet Chet, the wise and lovable canine narrator of Dog on It, who works alongside Bernie, a down-on-his-luck private investigator. Chet might have flunked out of police school ("I'd been the best leaper in K-9 class, which had led to all the trouble in a way I couldn't remember exactly, although blood was involved"), but he's a detective through and through. In this, their first adventure, Chet and Bernie investigate the disappearance of Madison, a teenage girl who may or may not have been kidnapped, but who has definitely gotten mixed up with some very unsavory characters. A well-behaved, gifted student, she didn't arrive home after school and her divorced mother is frantic. Bernie is quick to take the case -- something about a cash flow problem that Chet's not all that clear about -- and he's relieved, if vaguely suspicious, when Madison turns up unharmed with a story that doesn't add up. But when she disappears for a second time in a week, Bernie and Chet aren't taking any chances; they launch a full-blown investigation. Without a ransom demand, they're not convinced it's a kidnapping, but they are sure of one thing: something smells funny.- Amazon.com

STILL IMPORTANT*FALL PLAY AUDITIONS

Auditions for the fall play will be held in the Little Theatre on Sept. 1st and 2nd at 3:30 p.m. Come and be part of the fall play "The Good Doctor" by Neil Simon. We will be also looking for students to be on crew and tech. Any questions, please see Mrs. Marshall in the District Office.

AUTO CLUB

We will have our first meeting of Auto Club for the new school year after school on Tuesday, Aug. 31st. It's time to get fired up and get rolling. Everyone is invited to join the club and have fun with cars. I look forward to seeing all the regular members and lots of new faces right after school on Tuesday, Aug. 31st, in the Auto Lab across Golf Road next to the football field.

SNOWBALL
